AMENDMENT NO. 1

The following information is offered as the result of correspondence received prior to December 30, 2024:

1. The due date has changed from Tuesday, 1/7/25 at 2:30 p.m. to Tuesday, 1/14/25 at 2:30 p.m.
2. Please replace the Price Sheet with the attached revised Price Sheet.
3. Question: Line 10: Would you accept 6 quarts to a case (1.5 gallons)?
Answer: This is acceptable and we will just adjust our orders accordingly.
4. Question: Line 11: Would you accept 3 -1 gallons jugs to a case? We don't carry this in quart bottles in this product
Answer: This is acceptable and we will just adjust our orders accordingly. Also, line 11 does not specify quart bottles, it specifies "gallon container".
5. Question: Line 12: Would you accept hyd oil without the blue dye? We have been supplying you'll with bulk AW hyd oils without blue dye for 4/5 years now.
Answer: That is acceptable as the line specifies "upon request" and would not be the norm.
6. Question: Line 14: Would you accept 10 tubes to a case?
Answer: This is acceptable and we will just adjust our orders accordingly.
7. Question: Line 18: Will you accept 12 quarts to a case?
Answer: This is acceptable and we will just adjust our orders accordingly.
8. Question: Line 25: Are you looking for pricing on an empty DEF tote or 330 gallons of DEF filled in a tote for each delivery? I would recommend maybe requesting a bid price for empty 330 gallon totes and create another bid line for bulk DEF, that way you are able to save money and we can repeatedly fill the tote you purchase VS you having multiple filled totes on site.
Answer: Agreed. The changes have been made on the revised price sheets.
9. Question: Line 29: Will you accept 12-quart containers?
Answer: This is not acceptable as these are often put onto service trucks where space is at a premium.
10. Question: Line 41: Are you requesting this in bulk?

Answer: This is a mistake on the unit of issue and should be Drum (55 gal). The correction has been made on the revised price sheets.

11. Question: Line 42: Are you requesting this in bulk?

Answer: This is a mistake on the unit of issue and should be Drum (55 gal). The correction has been made on the revised price sheets.

12. All other terms and conditions remain the same.
